Who do I call?

A cartoon illustration of a suburban neighborhood. In the background, there is a yellow house with a red door and a green bush. To the right of the bush is a small yellow shed. Further right are two grey trash cans. In the foreground, a dog is on the sidewalk, and there is a pile of brown leaves. Red arrows point to various elements: one points to the house, another to the bush, a third to the trash cans, a fourth to the dog, and a fifth to the leaves. The text "No dog feces!" is written in large, bold, black letters at the top of the image.
